

What belongs together, grows together- AVINENT and VITA start an innovative partnership.

July 2016

AVINENT Implant System and VITA Zahnfabrik cooperate in future to offer customized system solution in the field of implantology.

“With AVINENT and VITA - two leading companies in digital dentistry cooperate. The pioneering technologies and materials, which are precisely tailored to the performance portfolio, enable the development of holistic and customized solutions” explains Patrick Bayer, Head of Cooperation Management at VITA.

Due to this cooperation, enhanced synergies can be exploit and bundled complementary know-how, which the customer finally profits sustainable. “We have found the perfect partner with VITA to offer a suitable solution for every type of restoration on implants, which is not available on the market in this way so far”, specify Albert Mangas, Head of Product Management at AVINENT.

AVINENT with its headquarter in Santpedor - Barcelona (Spain) and with more than 120 qualified employees is a leading company in Digital Implant Dentistry and Medical Technologies. AVINENT offers its innovative solutions in more than 15 countries worldwide and has strategic alliances with key technological partners such as Core3dcentres.

The VITA Zahnfabrik occurs in nearly 90 years as a pioneer and trendsetter for the first hour. VITA connects tradition and experience with dynamic and innovation as a world’s leading dental company with its headquarter and location for R&D in Bad Säckingen (Germany). VITA employs a total of almost 800 employees from over 20 nations.

Members of AVINENT and VITA at the Kick Off Event at VITA Bad Säckingen